

Now, they don't need to burn books to keep us from our history.

Not anymore. They just don't publish our stories or bury us under five hundred channels telling us that we love the system, that this is a democracy, and there is no point in resisting. Despite this, we know that this is wrong and that, in the long struggle for a better world, we must read our history as we fight for our future.

The Resistance Is Alive. Join Us.
